CZAR IS DISPLEASED

NICHOLAS VIEWS WITH DISFAVOR COMPLICATIONS WITH GREAT BRITAIN.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—The Associated Press has just been informed that Czar Nicholas, in an interview with Count Lamsdorff, the foreign minister, expressed his displeasure at the turn events had taken and at the possibility of complications with Great Britain, arising out of the detention of British ships by the Russian volunteer fleet steamers in the Red sea.

This pacific attitude, if the report be correct, will doubtless lead to an immediate and amicable adjustment of the difficulties.

UNION JACK TORN DOWN.

Russian's Insult the National Emblem of Great Britain.

London, July 21.—According to a Daily Mail dispatch from Port Said the Malacca is in charge of a Russian midshipman. The same dispatch declares that the Union Jack was torn down by the Russian prize crew, although the Russians treated the passengers and crew of the Malacca with every courtesy.

The captain of the Malacca asserts that the capture was made within the three mile limit.

The midshipman commanding this prize, which has set Europe by the ears, and almost threatens consequences more serious than the actual war in the far East, ordered 400 tons of coal at Port Said, but the officers refused to supply the coal on the ground that the vessel had a supply sufficiently ample to take her to the Black sea.

WAR ALMOST FORGOTTEN.

Russians Excited Over Attitude of Great Britain.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—The news that Great Britain has delivered to Russia a protest against the capture of the Peninsular and Oriental steamer Malacca in terms which are believed to be almost tantamount to a demand for the immediate release of the vessel, as well as a general protest against the action of the Russian volunteer fleet steamers in stopping ships in the Red sea, was not generally known to St. Petersburg last night, but Wednesday morning's editorial broadside from the London newspapers, re-printed in St. Petersburg in the afternoon, was a sufficient warning of the state of the British mind and the public became greatly excited.

In the hotels and restaurants, the war was temporarily forgotten and nothing excepting the possibility of complications with Great Britain was talked of. The old resentment against Great Britain, which had been much ameliorated of late, became revived at the mere suggestion that that country was again seeking to balk Russia, but the official world, which is charged with the responsibility, is keeping cool and calm.

Provided a blunder had not been made by the captain of the St. Petersburg in mistaking British government stores for contraband of war, Russia will probably be prepared to maintain the justice of the seizure; but if a mistake has been made, the government doubtless will order the Malacca to be set at liberty and pay the bill for her illegal detention.

Both powers, while standing on their rights, will, it is believed, do everything possible to avoid cause for a rupture.

JAPS LOSE TEN GUNS

SHARP FIGHTING IS REPORTED IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF TATCHEKIAO.

Tatchekiao, July 21.—Sharp fighting was reported Monday to the northeast, where it is said the Japanese lost ten guns. Their forces were pushed back and their positions occupied as far as Salmatsza. If this report be true it indicates a heavy engagement.

London, July 21.—The Standard's correspondent with the First Japanese army, General Kuroki, cabling under date of July 19, says:

"Our right flank has been engaged since morning."

GORMAN MAY BE CHOSEN.

Maryland Senator Still a Possibility for Democratic Chairman.

New York, July 21.—There is belief among the Democratic politicians who yet linger about the Hoffman House that Senator Gorman is still a possibility for chairman of the national committee. The idea of Gorman managing the campaign in the East and Thomas Taggart of Indiana managing it in the West meets with some favor and may be the solution of the problem.

ALL ENGLAND AFLAME

MALACCA INCIDENT STIRS UP THE WAR SPIRIT THROUGHOUT GREAT BRITAIN.

PUBLIC AND PRESS FOR WAR

ONLY PROMPT AND PACIFIC ACTION BY RUSSIA CAN NOW AVERT HOSTILITIES.

EXCITEMENT AT FEVER HEAT

NOT SINCE THE CRIMEAN WAR HAVE BRITONS BEEN SO INCENSED AT RUSSIA.

London, July 21.—All England is aflame with the spirit of war. The seizure of the steamer Malacca by the Russian volunteer fleet steamer St. Petersburg in the Red sea has aroused the British public and press to a fever of excitement and indignation that has not been equalled since the Crimean war. The attitude of both people and press is menacing in the extreme to Russia, and only prompt and pacific action by that power will prevent war. Even the most conservative, who have been in the service of the government for many years, and those who openly deplored the haste with which they thought Great Britain had plunged into the Transvaal war, frankly declare for a policy of reprisal against what they regard as Russian violation of treaties and her practical attack on British commerce.

The warlike tone of such papers as the Times, the Standard, the Morning Post and the Daily Telegraph, which in national crises hitherto almost invariably advised caution, has had its inevitable effect. There has been stirred up a storm of indignation among all classes in the United Kingdom, the strength of which the government itself can scarcely gauge.

Those who deplored the outbreak of the war between Japan and Russia and insisted publicly and privately that Great Britain, crippled financially after her South African experiences, must not at all costs be drawn into the far Eastern struggle, are now among the most outspoken champions of a physical force that will prevent the repetition of the Malacca incident in the Red sea.

Officials Are in Despair.

Those few officers at the foreign office who are in full possession of all the details of Great Britain's desire to arrive at an entente with Russia are in despair. They realize that the policy so carefully fostered by King Edward and Foreign Minister Lansdowne would now be indignantly repudiated by all parties in the house of commons and involve with the public the downfall of any ministry advocating it.

Every nerve will be strained, however, by the foreign office to secure from Russia an explanation that will pacify the aggrieved feelings of the British public, and no step will be taken officially that will tend to prejudice subsequent diplomatic negotiations looking to the settlement of all important questions now outstanding between Russia and Great Britain. However, there is expressed at the foreign office and elsewhere almost poignant regret that Russia, rightly or wrongly, should have taken up the position evinced by the action of her volunteer cruisers in the Red sea.

Great Britain's policy since the Russo-Japanese war has been one of strict neutrality, and the Anglo-French entente led to the belief that Britain and France would be detached spectators of the far Eastern fray.

The unlooked for developments in the Dardanelles and the Red sea embarrass Lord Lansdowne more than the circumstances themselves would indicate. The government, weakened by internal dissensions, could scarcely stand for a day against a popular demand for reprisals against Russia and this very danger is assiduously fostered by leading government newspapers.

Most Humiliating Incident in Years.

The news that there may be an amicable adjustment of the difficulties as the result of an interview between Czar Nicholas and Count Lamsdorff is not yet known to the British public and press. If such an adjustment is brought about, it will let Premier Balfour's government out of an awkward and serious crisis; but it will undoubtedly be several months before the British public can forget what has been described as the most humiliating incident in British history since the Dutch victoriously entered the Thames.

"Lord Lansdowne," says the Daily Telegraph, voicing the views of the government, "has faced the situation created by the abuse of the right of search by the only manner worthy of a British minister compelled to defend the interests of British commerce and the honor of the flag."

"While not one rash word should be said which could have the effect of increasing the tension of an anxious and dangerous interval, it would be futile to disguise the character or to minimize the risks of the situation which has arisen. We hope and believe that a solution of the difficulty may still be found in the withdrawal of the Russian government from its false position. It is obvious if the volunteers passed the Dardanelles as merchant vessels they cannot be allowed to scour the Red sea as warships.

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN, OF LITTLE FALLS, Congressman from the Sixth District and Candidate for re-nomination on the Republican ticket.

Must Either Be Open or Shut.

"The doors of the Black sea must either be open or shut. If open to Russian warships they must be so to all warships. If the Russian fleet is to be permitted to emerge in violation of treaty provisions, the British fleet must be allowed to enter upon these terms."

The Telegraph goes on to say that the stores of the Malacca were plainly marked with the broad arrow, showing that they belonged to the British government and were destined only for a British depot. "It would be impossible to conceive a more remarkable accumulation of illegality and error than has attended the present case," the paper says. "If this country were capable under any circumstances of tamely enduring so grave an injury to the most vital of its interests, and should have forfeited our claim to be a great nation. In any circumstances, we think it may be assumed that the Malacca may never be navigated by a prize crew to any Russian port. She is watched, if not actually stopped, by British warships and she will, in any case, be restored to her owners long before she can be taken through the Dardanelles or navigated to Liban.

No Retreat Nor Finching.

"This emergency, in some respects, is the most critical that has marked our relations with Russia in the past twenty years, and in face of the inflamed public opinion in St. Petersburg, it would be unwise to blind ourselves to the existence of possibilities that would otherwise be unthinkable. This country has adopted with decision and composure an attitude from which there can be no retreat or finching. We seek a simple redress for a violent and unprovoked injury and where the peace of the West depends upon the will of the czar we cannot believe that civilization will look to him during the next forty-eight hours in vain."

The foregoing pronouncement, from an organ so notoriously inspired, with its open reference to a possibility of war, adds enormously to a situation that already was grave enough.

Every other London morning paper devotes its leading editorials to a similar view of the situation. War with Russia is openly contemplated by the most staid papers of the empire as a contingency much to be regretted, but nevertheless inevitable for the honor of the nation unless speedy reparation be made for what is alleged to be a dire insult to the British flag.

Special dispatches from Malta give alarmist accounts of the hurried departure from that port of the British cruiser and torpedo squadron. Their presence at Suez or thereabouts may eventually have no little bearing on the situation.

ONE would imagine from reading the Minneapolis Journal that the state convention had not been held. The Journal is publishing as much rot now as it did before the people decided on their candidate and the endorsement that paper received has encouraged it to dip

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN, of Little Falls, is a candidate for renomination on the republican ticket for congressman from the Sixth congressional district. Two years ago Mr. Buckman came before the people as a candidate for this position and while the vote at the primary election was so close between him and his opponent that it took several days to decide the matter, he was the nominee of the party and at the general election his majority was considerably over 5,000 over Dr. DuBois, the democratic standard bearer. Mr. Buckman has served his constituents ably and well during the time he has held the office and no man could have accomplished more when it is considered that he was a new member. He has been extremely successful in his efforts with the department in securing pensions for many of the old soldiers in the district whose cases have been dragging for years. In all justice to the gentleman he is entitled to a renomination and a re-election and the prediction is made that his nomination this year will be as easy as was his election two years ago.

Forecast—Fair and warmer.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 82 above zero; minimum 53 above zero.

The democratic state convention will be held August 30.

"HURRAH for who cares a cuss," is one of the bright editorials in the Anoka Union.

ROYALTON has voted to issue bonds to the amount of $10,000 for the purpose of installing an electric light plant.

IN AN inspection of twenty-four of the principal cities in Minnesota, State Factory Inspector J. P. Gardiner reports that he found only seven cases of illegal employment of children and that the sanitary condition in the factories are greatly improved and almost all that could be desired.

JOHN T. FRATER who is a candidate for the nomination of state senator on the republican ticket will have no opposition at the primaries, which occur on September 20, and at the general election the voters will announce their choice in no uncertain sound. This is a republican year and none but republicans will be put on guard.

ONE would imagine from reading the Minneapolis Journal that the state convention had not been held. The Journal is publishing as much rot now as it did before the people decided on their candidate and the endorsement that paper received has encouraged it to dip into the congressional fights which it will now endeavor to settle. The Journal is long on "getting even."

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN, of Little Falls, is a candidate for renomination on the republican ticket for congressman from the Sixth congressional district. Two years ago Mr. Buckman came before the people as a candidate for this position and while the vote at the primary election was so close between him and his opponent that it took several days to decide the matter, he was the nominee of the party and at the general election his majority was considerably over 5,000 over Dr. DuBois, the democratic standard bearer. Mr. Buckman has served his constituents ably and well during the time he has held the office and no man could have accomplished more when it is considered that he was a new member. He has been extremely successful in his efforts with the department in securing pensions for many of the old soldiers in the district whose cases have been dragging for years. In all justice to the gentleman he is entitled to a renomination and a re-election and the prediction is made that his nomination this year will be as easy as was his election two years ago.

BIG STRIKE IS ENDED

PACKERS AND EMPLOYEES AGREE TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES BY ARBITRATION.

MEN WILL GO BACK TO WORK

STRIKERS TO BE REINSTATED IN OLD POSITIONS AS FAST AS POSSIBLE.

Chicago, July 21.—The strike of packinghouse employees, begun nine days ago, which has hampered the packing industry throughout the country, was submitted to arbitration last night at a conference of representatives of the packers, officers of the meat cutters' union and representatives of all the allied trades employed at the stockyards. Both sides agree to abide by whatever decision the arbitrators may reach on all questions in issue.

Pending the decision of the arbitration board the men will be taken back to work as rapidly as possible by the packers, and it is agreed by the packers that all the old employees are to be reinstated within forty-five days from the date work is resumed. If any of the former employees are still unemployed at the expiration of that time, such persons are to have the privilege of submitting their cases to the arbitration board for settlement.

The strikers will return to work as soon as they can be advised of the peaceable adjustment of the trouble, and it is expected that by Friday morning everything will be in normal shape at all the plants in the different cities where the employees were on strike.

Half an hour after the decision to arbitrate had been received, M. J. Donnelly, the strike leader, had got into communication by long distance telephone with the leaders of the strikers in outside cities and had advised them that a satisfactory settlement had been reached and directed the strikers to report for work as soon as possible.

Brought About by Allied Trades. The settlement of the difficulty by arbitration was brought about by the allied craft at the stockyards, who would have become involved in the controversy had it continued much longer. The representatives of these unions, which include about 14,000 men, met Tuesday and sent a final appeal to the packers, asking for a three-sided conference Wednesday of packers, strikers and themselves. The packers agreed, and Wednesday's conference resulted.

The agreement entered into between the representatives of the packers and of the strikers follows: "Wages and working conditions of all employees now on strike to be submitted to arbitration, each party to this agreement having the privilege of bringing before the arbitrators for decision any question of wages or conditions, or any other grievance they may have and both to abide by the decision of the arbitrators. The packing companies signing this agreement are to retain all employees now at work, who wish to remain, and will re-employ all employees now out as fast as possible, without discrimination. Employees to return to work at the wages received when going on strike, pending the decision of the arbitrators; arbitrators to consist of three practical packinghouse men, to be selected as follows:

Will Be Three Arbitrators.

"One representative of the packing companies; one representative of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America; these two to select a third member. The two first named shall meet within forty-eight hours after resumption of work, proceed to elect the third member, and shall meet daily for that purpose until this duty has been completed. When the third member has been selected, the three shall meet daily unless adjournment be had by unanimous consent, until the final conclusion has been reached and the award made. Any former employee not re-employed within forty-five days from date work is resumed is to have the privilege of submitting his or her case to arbitration, on question of discrimination, decision of arbitrators to govern."

The agreement reached at last night's conference is similar to the proposal made last Saturday to the packers by Donnelly. When the men return to work it will be under exactly the same conditions as prevailed before the strike was declared, with the exception that the question of a wage scale will be decided by arbitration.

At Kansas City, Sioux City, Omaha and St. Louis both packers and strikers were jubilant at the ending of the strike. The men will all go back to work.

RELIEF AT SOUTH ST. PAUL

Packers and Strikers Pleased at Ending of the Trouble.

St. Paul, July 21.—Both the officials of the Swift Packing company branch and the strikers at South St. Paul expressed delight and satisfaction upon hearing that the conference at Chicago had resulted in the settling of the strike. They expressed willingness to abide by the terms of the settlement, and did not try to conceal their great relief.

South St. Paul was quiet all day.

Favor Amalgamation.

St. Paul, July 21.—Amalgamation and co-operation with allied trades were the slogans sounded yesterday at the second day's proceedings of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America in the senate chamber of the state capitol. Proposals looking to a closer affiliation with the railroad telegraphers, the typographical union and the electrical workers' union were made in the reports of the officers.

PURSUING FLANKING TACTICS.

Japs Threatening to Cut Kuropatkin's Line of Communication.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—All advised from the theater of war continue to confirm to opinion that the pressure on General Kuropatkin's southern front at Tatchekiao is being relieved and that the Japanese are pursuing their favorite flanking tactics, working around to the northeast as if to threaten the communication between Mukden and Liaoyang or to make a direct attack on Liaoyang.

General Kuropatkin having developed the strength of the Japanese at Motien pass by Count Keller's attack on July 17, reported last evening that a considerable column of Japanese is advancing along the northern Saimatza and Liaoyang road. This column came into touch with General Rennenkampf's cavalry near Sekheyuan on Monday. The Russians fell back before the advancing column on Monday and Tuesday some thirteen miles to Routsiatze, twenty miles as the crow flies from Liaoyang. General Kuropatkin gives no particulars as to the character of the fighting.

The main armies are now within striking distance and only a single day's march separates them.

The great importance of the appearance of the Japanese on the northern road is that if the advance should be pushed, General Keller's position in the Lian valley would be outflanked, as would the latter on the strong Russian position at Liandianshan, which commands the Fengwangcheng high-road and two minor roads from Shmoucheng and Siuyen over which the Japanese would advance to the north. Once outflanked here the road to Liaoyang would be open.

"At 9:30 a. m., July 20, the Vladivostok squadron fired on and sunk a Japanese steamboat of 318 tons off the coast of Isoda, about twenty-five miles from Hakodate. All of the crew were landed safely at Cape Yezan."

MRS. MAYBRICK FREE

NOTED AMERICAN WOMAN IS AT LAST RELEASED FROM HER BRITISH PRISON.

Truro, Cornwall, Eng., July 21.—Mrs. Florence Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:43 a. m. on her way to France.

Mrs. Maybrick's imprisonment was not terminated with the clang of doors, the last sound which remains in the ears of so many of her fellow prisoners who had preceded her to liberty from Aylesbury prison, where she spent more than fourteen years of her life. It closed before the arched doorway of the white convent of the Sisterhood of the Epiphany in this little town, with the black robed sisters softly uttering their blessings and good wishes for her future. With two companions Mrs. Maybrick entered the carriage of the sisterhood, and was driven rapidly to Stauhall, a mail station four miles away, where, after exchanging goodbyes with her companions, she boarded a train and started on her journey to France. She will not go to America until her presence there is considered imperative.

The greatest secrecy was thrown about Mrs. Maybrick's departure. Mrs. Maybrick, who was Miss Florence E. Chandler, was convicted of poisoning her husband, James Maybrick of Liverpool, with arsenic in 1895, and sentenced to death, the sentence later being commuted to life imprisonment. There has always been doubt as to Mrs. Maybrick's guilt, as her elderly husband was a confirmed user of arsenic.

NORTH DAKOTANS NOMINATE

E. Y. SARLES OF HILLSBORO IS NAMED FOR GOVERNOR BY THE REPUBLICANS.

Des Moines, Ia., July 21.—The following ticket was nominated Wednesday by the Republicans of Iowa:

Secretary of state, W. B. Martin, Adair; treasurer, G. S. Gilbertson, Winnebago; auditor, B. F. Carroll, Davis; attorney general, C. W. Mullan, Black Hawk; supreme judge, H. E. Doerner, Montgomery; railroad commissioner, N. S. Ketchum, Marshall town; electors at large, Colonel E. H. Ormsby, Palo Alto, and J. H. Treu, Linn.

Men who have harbored the Iowa idea and those who have stood pat allied forces.

The convention was harmonious, every candidate but railroad commissioner being nominated by acclamation. Ketchum won the railroad commissionership in two ballots, defeating his opponents with ease. The session was one of the shortest held in years, and it was marked by only one enthusiastic demonstration—that which greeted Governor Cummins when his name was read in resolutions before the convention. The delegates cheered for several minutes and the governor was forced to make a short speech.

Governor Cummins in this speech aligned himself for the campaign with the dominant faction in the party, which has been opposed to him. He declared himself in perfect accord with the address of Congressman W. P. Hepburn, a leading standpatter, and as he continued in this harmonious vein, he was accorded cheer after cheer.

The resolutions adopted are brief and they include nothing to give offense to the Iowa idea minority. They endorse the Chicago national platform, the administration of President Roosevelt and the nomination of Roosevelt and Fairbanks. The Iowa delegation in congress is endorsed, and also the administration of Governor Cummins.

The resolutions adopted, after a general reaffirmation of the national platform, are devoted chiefly to expressions of approval of the national irrigation law. The platform reiterates the support by the party of the existing prohibition laws, and other laws for which the party in the state has stood.

BIG STRIKE IS ENDED

PACKERS AND EMPLOYEES AGREE TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES
BY ARBITRATION.

MEN WILL GO BACK TO WORK

STRIKERS TO BE REINSTATED
IN OLD POSITIONS AS FAST
AS POSSIBLE.

Chicago, July 21.—The strike of packinghouse employees, begun nine days ago, which has hampered the packing industry throughout the country, was submitted to arbitration last night at a conference of representatives of the packers, officers of the meat cutters' union and representatives of all the allied trades employed at the stockyards. Both sides agree to abide by whatever decision the arbitrators may reach on all questions in issue.

Pending the decision of the arbitration board the men will be taken back to work as rapidly as possible by the packers, and it is agreed by the packers that all the old employees are to be reinstated within forty-five days from the date work is resumed. If any of the former employees are still unemployed at the expiration of that time, such persons are to have the privilege of submitting their cases to the arbitration board for settlement.
The strikers will return to work as soon as they can be advised of the peaceable adjustment of the trouble, and it is expected that by Friday morning everything will be in normal shape at all the plants in the different cities where the employees were on strike.

Half an hour after the decision to arbitrate had been received, M. J.
Donnelly, the strike leader, had got into communication by long distance telephone with the leaders of the strikers in outside cities and had advised them that a satisfactory settlement had been reached and directed the strikers to report for work as soon
as possible.

Brought About by Allied Trades.

The settlement of the difficulty by arbitration was brought about by the allied craft at the stockyards, who would have become involved in the controversy had it continued much longer. The representatives of these unions, which include about 14,000 men, met Tuesday and sent a final appeal to the packers, asking for a three-sided conference Wednesday of packers, strikers and themselves. The packers agreed, and Wednesday's conference resulted.

The agreement entered into between the representatives of the packers and of the strikers follows:
"Wages and working conditions of all employees now on strike to be submitted to arbitration, each party to this agreement having the privilege of bringing before the arbitrators for decision any question of wages or conditions, or any other grievance they may have and both to abide by the decision of the arbitrators. The packing companies signing this agreement are to retain all employees now at work, who wish to remain, and will reemploy all employees now out as fast as possible, without discrimination.
Employees to return to work at the wages received when going on strike, pending the decision of the arbitrators; arbitrators to consist of three practical packinghouse men, to be selected as follows:

Will Be Three Arbitrators.

"One representative of the packing companies; one representative of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America; these two to select a third member. The two first named shall meet within forty-eight hours after resumption of work, proceed to elect the third member, and shall meet daily for that purpose until this duty has been completed. When the third member has been selected, the three shall meet daily unless adjournment be had by unanimous consent, until the final conclusion has been reached and the award made. Any former employee not reemployed within forty-five days from date work is resumed is to have the privilege of submitting his or her case to arbitration, on question of discrimination, decision of arbitrators to govern."

The agreement reached at last night's conference is similar to the proposal made last Saturday to the packers by Donnelly. When the men return to work it will be under exactly the same conditions as prevailed before the strike was declared, with the exception that the question of a wage scale will be decided by arbitration.

At Kansas City, Sioux City, Omaha and St. Louis both packers and strikers were jubilant at the ending of the strike. The men will all go back to work.

RELIEF AT SOUTH ST. PAUL.

Packers and Strikers Pleased at Ending of the Trouble.

St. Paul, July 21.—Both the officials of the Swift Packing company branch and the strikers at South St.
Paul expressed delight and satisfaction upon hearing that the conference at Chicago had resulted in the settling of the strike. They expressed willingness to abide by the terms of the settlement, and did not try to conceal their great relief.

South St. Paul was quiet all day.

Favor Amalgamation.

St. Paul, July 21.—Amalgamation and co-operation with allied trades

at the second day's proceedings of the

FATHER AND SON DROWNED.

Former Dies in Vain Attempt to Save the Latter.

Grinnell, Ia., July 21.—Henry C.
Spencer, a banker, and his son, Clarke
H. Spencer, were drowned last night in Arbor lake at Grinnell. They were out in their launch. Clarke Spencer fell into the water and his father jumped after him. Both struck out for shore, Mr. Spencer reaching it safely, but he plunged in again after his son and both went down a few feet from the bank. Mr. Spencer was formerly treasurer of Iowa college at Grinnell.
